FEW CHANGES IN PRICES IN THE CITY'S MARKETS

Eggs an Exception, Decided Drop in the Quotations Being Noted.

Lamb and Sliced Bacon Slightly Lower-Fish Reported Scarce, But Figures Unchanged.

With the benches in the markets of he city well supplied with good things or the table, and the demand for them also good, prices this week show but few changes from those quoted a week ago. upply being received in the wholesale market continues to grow heavier alprices show a drop from those of last week, and this morning hennery eggs re quoted at 40 cents a dozen, 5 cents dozen cheaper than they were a week igo. Good fresh eggs can be bought at cents a dozen, and from these figures prices range down to 30 cents a dozen or storage eggs.

In the meat market lamb is quoted ower on the less choice grades, and lived bacon cheaper on the more desirable ats. Fork chops are somewhat higher han a week ago. Fish are reported care, but the dealers state no change is be noted in prices. On the fruit ches. Malaga grapes are higher, and wberries are somewhat lower in price in a week ago.

FISH RECEIPTS LIGHT.

Demand Good and Prices on Many Varieties Show Advance.

Receipts of fish of all kinds by the dealers at the wharf wholesale market have been very light for the past week, while the demand has been good. As a consequence, prices on many varieties show an advance over those quoted last week. Shad and herring both continue scarce and command high prices in large lots.

This morning prices for fresh fish, by the pound, ranged about as follows: Salmon trout, 15 cents; blues, 16 cents; bass, Florida, 12 cents; bass, Potomac and North Carolina, from 14 to 17 cents; halibut, 12 cents; Spanish mackerel, 18 cents; mullets, 4 cents; white perch, 8 to 16 cents; hogfish, 8 cents; pike, 12½ to 14 cents; rock, 18 to 28 cents; carp, 7 to 9 cents; pollock, 6 cents; cod, 4 to 12 cents; haddock, 5 to 7 cents; catfish, 25 to 60 cents a bunch; white perch, small, 25 cents a bunch; yellow perch, 15 to 60 cents a bunch; roe shad, from $1 to $1.75 each; buck shad, from 50 to 80 cents each; herring, from 2 to 5½ cents each; herring, from 2 to 5½ cents each; herring, from 2 to 5½ cents each; berties on frozen stock, by the pound, were as follows: Salmon, 12 cents; butters, 5 cents; sea bass, 4 cents; smelts, 10½ cents, and herring, $6 a barrel. pike, 12 1/2 to 14 cents; rock, 18 to 28 Oysters are plentiful at the wharf at

STOP CATARRH! OPEN NOSTRILS AND HEAD

Says Cream Applied in Nostrils Relieves Head-Colds at Once.

If your nostrils are clogged and your head is stuffed and you can't breathe freely because of a cold or catarrh, just get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. Apply a little of this store. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream into your nostrils and let it penetrate through every air passage of your head, soothing and healing the inflamed, swollen mucous membrane and you get instant relief. Ah! how good it feels. Your nostrils are open, your head is clear, no more hawking, snuffling, blowing; no more headache, dryness or struggling for breath. Ely's Cream Balm is just what sufferers from head colds and catarrh need. It's a delight.
